CLEVELAND STORYTELLER

DAN RUMINSKI

The Cleveland Storyteller, Dan Ruminski, has appeared on radio and television as well as in numerous magazine and newspaper articles. All told the Storyteller has presented over 600 talks throughout greater Cleveland for over 10 years to more than 40,000 people.

Using Cleveland's great history, Dan's goal is to inspire greater Clevelanders with the history of this truly great city. Pride will build as you hear about the cast of characters, all millionaires who through hard work made this city the best in the country. The Storyteller has created a new talk just for our special evening entitled Millionaires' Row and Its' Legacy for Charity. Dan's presentation is unlike any other. You will be spellbound and amazed!

To date through our Willoughby Rotary Autism Project (WRAP) over 250 iPads have been donated to both individuals in need as well as organizations working with special needs children and adults including Autism Speaks, Deepwood Foundation, Broadmoor Schools and CARES.
